Stand from Under

For reasons which we do not care to explain, but which are all sufficient to us, we have made the following sweeping reductions in the low prices heretofore governing our matchless stock of Gentlemen's Clothing;

$40 Overcoats now $25. 35 Overcoats now 25. 30 Overcoats now 20, 28 Overcoats now 20-25 Overcoats now 18.

How do these prices strike you? Well, never mind expressing an opinion, but PERUSE :

Some $25 Overcoats now $15 00. $22 Overcoats now $15 00. 20 Overcoats now 13 50. 15 Overcoats now 10 00.

12 Overcoats now 8 00.

10 Overcoats now 6 00.

Never mind the why or wherefore. You must not kick for an explanation. The cause is our affair; the result your opportunity. Here is some choice reading for bargain-hunters:

> $35 Suits now $25. 30 Suits now 30. 25 Suits now 18. 20 Sults now 15. 15 Suits now 10.

And a few that readily sold for $20 and $18 are thrown in those marked $10.

Separate Trousers-models of correct style-we offer at about 58 cents on the dollar.

We have no more space, else we would gladden many a mother's heart by the recital of our elaughter of prices in Boys' and Children's Clothing. We simply say in conclusion: We neither ask nor give quarter. Our slogan is, "War to the knife" on high prices for Fine Clothing. *****

The petition, which is accompanied by a letter from Dr. Augusta saking consideration, is signed by J. H. Rainey Fred. Douglass, G. W. Cook, C. H. A. Bulkley, E. M. Hewlett, F. G. Barbadaes, J. W. Cromwell, T. B. Warwick, and others. The petition says that while many barrooms are closed to them, and that they are made to suffer a great many indignities which are degrading, and work a positive injury on the community. "We are tax-payers," it says, "and contribute to the support of the government, which should render whatever aid lies in its power to assist its own citizens in maintaining their dignity and respectability." A draft of a bill accompanies the petition.

Human Calves.

Human Calves.

An exchange says: "Nine-tenths of the unhappy marriages result from human calves being allowed to run at large in society pastures." Nine-tenths of the caronic or lingering diseases of to day originate in impure blood, liver complaint or biliousness, resulting in scrowla, consumption (which is but scrowla of the lungs), sores, ulcers, skin diseases, and kindred affections. Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical

The Dempsey Jury Locked Up.
The jury who have been sitting in hearing in the trial of Wm. H. Dempsey, charged with presenting false vouchers to the bureau of medicine and surgery of the Navy Department, received the case yesterday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, and had not agreed when they were locked up for the night. When the court resumed its session in the morning, District Aitorney Worthington proceeded with his summing up to the jury and concluded his argument shortly after 12 o'clock. A recess was taken, and when the court mot again Justice-MacArthur delivered his instructions to the jury. His honor said that a bold robbery had been perpetrated, and the question was as to who was responsible for it. He reviewed the evidence and said that the case was reduced to a question of veracity, and the jury must decide between McLaughtin, Carrigan, and Jones on the one side, and hempsoy and the other proof on that side. It was a matter of the ingless importance, both to the defendant and to the government, and one which only the jury could decide. presenting false vouchers to the bureau of

The southern passenger convention is now in sersion at Atlanta. The following lines algued the articles of agreement of the articles along and were admitted to membership: The Kome rathroad of Georgia: the Fertile Isaliway and Navigation Company, and the Jacksonythia, Tampia and Key West railroad. It was thought that the Hilmost Central, the Chelmant Southern, and the Mississippi Valley roads would become members of the convention, but the Hilmost Central and the Mississippi Valley were not represented, and General Passenger Agent Colbran, of the Cinchinant Southern, who was present, stated that his line would not join the convention without the other two. The canveiting passenger rates to and from all points coverethy the southern passenger committee. The discussion showed a strong (enderly emigrant zales.
